

Architectural floor plan of the Hotel building, showing a detailed view of the left side and a general view of the right side. The plan includes rooms, corridors, and a central area with circular tables. A red box highlights a specific area on the left side.

